

RECOMMENDATION NARRATIVE FOR THE 2008 NATIONAL IMAGE, INC MERITORIOUS SERVICE AWARD; CASE OF CHIEF WARRANT OFFICER 2 PEDRO HERNANDEZ USMC

As a multi-cultural community host: Chief Warrant Officer 2 Hernandez has selflessly dedicated his off-duty time in promoting the tenets of race relations, equal opportunity, and public service by actively supporting the House of Puerto Rico, San Diego. The House of Puerto Rico, San Diego is a not-for-profit community organization dedicated to furthering cooperation and understanding between national groups in the United States. This organization offers visitors a learning window into Puerto Rico's culture, history and traditions every Sunday afternoon. During calendar years 2006 and 2007, Chief Warrant Officer 2 Hernandez volunteered his off-duty hours in personally hosting thousands of San Diego residents and tourists visiting and participating in the park activities sponsored by the San Diego House of Pacific Relations and the House of Puerto Rico. These activities for visitors that he volunteered for included Ethnic Food Festivals, Dia de San Juan Picnics, Three Kings Holiday Celebrations, Annual Lawn Programs featuring folk music and dancing, Fiesta de Navidad, and Latino Film Festivals.

As a community volunteer: Chief Warrant Officer 2 Hernandez also supported the disadvantaged children of Vista, CA. The majority of these children are Spanish speaking and learning to speak English. Sadly, they come from poverty stricken neighborhoods overwhelmed with street gangs and living in single parent households. Recognizing the dire circumstances of these children, Chief Warrant Officer 2 Hernandez helped support the coordination of four free soccer clinics for these children to participate in during the 1st Annual Vista Sherriff Station Soccer Fest. These clinics were attended by over 400 children and taught by coaches with the North San Diego Futbol Club. In addition to supporting disadvantaged children, Chief Warrant Officer 2 Hernandez also arranged for residents of Oceanside, CA and Vista, CA to publicly view close order drill movements performed by a platoon of Marine Corporals, attending the Corporals Course of Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton and the performance of the Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton Color Guard. This performance and Chief Warrant Officer 2 Hernandez' participation received verbal praise by the Mayor of Vista, CA and the Vista Sherriff Station. Chief Warrant Officer 2 Hernandez continues to serve the local community as a coach for the French Valley Girls Softball Association, located in Murrieta, CA.

As a Marine Corps Leader: Recognizing that diversity is critical to mission accomplishment, Chief Warrant Officer 2 Hernandez actively promotes Marine Corps programs that affect the advancement of minorities and women. During 2006 and 2007, while serving as the Deputy Director of Marine Aircraft Group 39, Consolidate Personnel Administration Center, he personally mentored over 50 Marines. Of these 50 Marines, 17 enlisted Marines of Hispanic, Asian and Indian descents earned meritorious promotions and 2 Hispanic Marines earned selection to Marine Corps Officer Commissioning Programs. Other noteworthy equal opportunity achievements that were credited to Chief Warrant Officer 2 Hernandez include 2 female Marines being selected as Marine and Marine Noncommissioned Officer of the Quarter. Additionally, as a former Marine Corps recruiter, he applied his experience in retention and career building to guide Marines towards furthering their career goals as Marines. As a result of his efforts, 6 First Term Marines reenlisted for 2007 and 2008 and are now serving our Nation in winning the fight against global terrorism.

In summary, Chief Warrant Officer 2 Hernandez has made a significant impact in advancing the civil rights of Hispanics and other races, as well as endorsing the full integration and promotion of minorities and women within the Marine Corps. Additionally, he has fostered a positive relationship between the Marine Corps and civilian community. He is an outstanding Marine and a Great Samaritan, and we owe a special thanks to him for his selfless service to Country, Corps, and Community.
